CURRICULUM VITAE

OVERVIEW:

Beth B. De Lima, president, and principal of HRM Consulting, Inc., is nationally certified as a Senior Professional in Human Resources with a state-specific certification in California (SPHR-CA) by the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), a SHRM Senior Certified Professional (SHRM-SCP) and has been appointed to sit on the Employee Health, Safety, and Security Special Expertise Panel. Ms. De Lima is a certified mediator through the UC Berkeley Extension program and has been appointed to the Amador County Superior Court Mediation Panel. Ms. De Lima is an expert in the HR aspects of employment regulation compliance, litigation, and vocational rehabilitation.

Ms. De Lima has extensive experience in developing and implementing HR programs and policies that relate to federal and state employment legislation, including:

- Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)
- Good Faith Interactive Meetings
- Undue Hardship Analysis
- ADA Accommodation Assessments / Analysis
- ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA)
- Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA)
- Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA)
- California Family Rights Act (CFRA)
- Medical Leave Management
- Essential Function Job Descriptions
- Human Resource Audits, Onboarding to Separation
- Wrongful Termination
- Workers' Compensation Medical Leave Management
- Vocational Rehabilitation
- Sexual Harassment
- Exempt / Non-exempt Classifications
- I-9 Audits

With the unique advantage of being experienced in both vocational rehabilitation and human resource management, Ms. De Lima conducts vocational and HR assessments for use in job re-training, labor market assessments, employment litigation, personal injury, or Divorce.

Ms. De Lima takes a holistic approach to HR matters and has worked frequently on both the employee and employer side of sensitive personnel disputes. Her in-depth knowledge of employment law compliance makes her well suited to work as a liaison between HR professionals and attorneys in the event of threatened or existing litigation.

Ms. De Lima is a frequent speaker on HR topics, offering training on a full range of employment management topics through webinars as well as to clients on-site or in the beautiful setting of Murphys, California.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

HRM Consulting, Inc. Founder and Principal Murphys, California 1993 to Present
bdelima@hrmconsulting.com www.hrmconsulting.com

Beth B. De Lima founded HRM Consulting, Inc., a California-based human resource consulting firm, in 1993. She has been assisting corporate, non-profit, and governmental clients with HR policy development and implementation since 1992. Ms. De Lima serves clients at many levels, including the state of California and the Federal Government, as well as both private and not-for-profit organizations. These organizations range in size from employers with many thousands of employees, to small business owners who rely on Ms. De Lima to help manage their HR challenges on an outsourced basis.

Ms. De Lima is an expert in HR areas relating to medical leave management and physical accommodation in the workplace. She has worked closely with clients to establish and maintain compliance with federal and state employment legislation, including the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA). Services include Return to Work (RTW) programs, modified/alternative work assessments, as well as the development of essential function job analyses. This specialized knowledge allows Ms. De Lima to help organizations reduce potential liability due to employment litigation.

Ms. De Lima has special interests in the impact of computer ergonomics in the workplace, workflow processes, as well as organizational communications. She regularly applies this knowledge as a Business Analyst for corporate clients by developing procedural guidelines, verifying job descriptions, and implementing performance management systems.

Ms. De Lima is highly skilled and experienced in a broad range of employment matters within the area of human resource policy, such as:

- Management Training
- Employee Policy Handbook Development/Modification
- Organizational Development
- Employee Life Cycle Management (including hiring and termination procedures)
- Performance Management Systems
- Sexual Harassment Training
- Essential Function Job Descriptions

Ms. De Lima also applies her expertise to full vocational rehabilitation services including vocational assessments: testing, evaluation, job analysis, and return to work plan development. Ms. De Lima is an experienced Qualified Rehabilitation Representative (QRR) and served as a Federal Government Certified Ticket to Work provider from 1993 to 2011. She continues to assist employers, employees, and individuals with modified/alternative work assessments and return to work services.

Amador and Calaveras County Superior Court Civil Mediation Panel

April 2008 to 2018

Various Government Agencies

Social Security Administration / Ticket to Work / Railroad Retirement Board 1993 to 2011

As an experienced Vocational Expert for both Social Security and Railroad Retirement Disability claims, Ms. De Lima participated in cases involving “ability to work” issues. She was also certified by the Federal Government to provide Social Security Disability Ticket to Work Services.

Crawford and Company Healthcare Management

Vocational Consultant II

December 1, 1992 to October 8, 1993

---

Through Crawford and Company Healthcare Management, Ms. De Lima provided comprehensive vocational rehabilitation return to work services to injured workers. These services included transferable skills assessment, skill and abilities testing, accommodation analysis, and return to work services. She was responsible for the development and implementation of proactive placement services including an English/Spanish Job Club. Through her hard work and dedication, Ms. De Lima increased placement statistics from 30% to 90% in the Central Sierra region during a period of 18.5% unemployment.

First Nationwide Bank

Systems Analyst, January 1992 to August 1992 Sacramento, California

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

Ms. De Lima worked as an adjunct instructor teaching Business Essentials at Columbia College in Sonora, California, from January 1, 2001, to June 30, 2001 and at Modesto Junior College, from April 2005 to November 2005. Ms. De Lima continues to conduct short course seminars and webinars and has developed cloud-based training programs for both national and CA state-specific ADA and FMLA compliance strategies.

Other teaching experience includes:

- Sacramento State University, Teaching Assistant, Spring/Fall 1991
- University of Arizona, Teaching Assistant, Fall 1989 to Spring 1990

- California Assembly Bill AB 1825 mandates sexual harassment training every two years for employers with 50 or more employees or employers who receive the services of 50 or more persons. Over the last 10 years, Ms. De Lima has conducted sexual harassment training workshops for both private employers as well as business organizations. Previous sponsors include the Economic Development Company, the Small Business Development Corporation, and the Chamber of Commerce. In the last quarter of 2005 alone, Ms. De Lima trained over 200 managers, in compliance with AB 1825. Training includes best practices regarding investigations, as well as reporting and disciplinary procedures. Additionally, in regard to sexual harassment policies and procedures, client policy and procedure manuals are updated for companies (or created from scratch, when necessary) as part of a comprehensive employee handbook and management training process.
